in Bangalore or not, but till now I received no reply.

Today I have sent to you a special messenger ~~not~~ with a note to seek your advice.

After his departure from here I found the Gazette Extraordinary

You will find in these rules that I am the main target of it. According to it I have to choose one of these three things

- 1- to renounce before my meeting to be held on 29th May.
- 2- to send my presidential address to the Home Secretary and deliver it with such alterations as the Government without submitting to the Government and be ready for its punishments which will not only the confiscation of my jagher or title but also any other action under any other law as said in last section of these rules.

Now I want your advice, I sent another telegramme to you today informing about to these rules.

If my messenger Mr Jhakhanddin Hassan is there dictate him your orders in details. And if you are not in Bangalore or he has left the place, please let me know your orders as soon as possible.

Very sorry for my wrong English and bad handwriting.

With best regards

yours sincerely
Bahadur Gargung.
