Sahab,

I was very pleased indeed to hear of Mohamad Ismail Khan who was in Hyderabad that you have all sympathies with the All-India Muslim League and that you were good enough to express your desire to help us in any way. Of course I was very pleased to hear your spontaneous and unprompted desire to support us.

The immediate need of the Muslim League organisation is now for money I have issued an appeal recently, of which I am enclosing herewith, to which I have not come across it already.

I request you, therefore, to make a contribution and also ask other people whom God has given plenty to help us in our struggle for the hundred million of Muslims and which is a struggle for their life and death.

With kind regards

Yours sincerely

Jawahar Lal Nehru
